

FLOODS IN MIDWEST

DOWNPOUR WRECKS HAVOC IN THREE STATES

$1,000,000 DAMAGES IS DONE BY HIGH WATER

Deluge in Kansas, Colorado and Oklahoma Washes Out a Score of Bridges, Halts Train Service and Damages Crops.

Oklahoma City—Two walls of water totalling seventeen feet swept down the South Canadian river through western Oklahoma. Swollen by torrential rains throughout the watershed, the river reached its highest stage in years, according to reports.

A five-foot wall, closely followed by a twelve-foot rise, raced eastward toward the junction of the Arkansas river, which was at flood stage in the northwestern part of the state. Property loss will run high.

One person drowned and damages estimated at more than a million dollars was caused by flood waters which swept through Kansas, Colorado and Oklahoma. Snow fell in parts of Colorado.

Small streams and rivers, swollen into raging torrents after forty-eight hours of torrential rains, flooded a number of Kansas towns and rural communities, driving residents from their homes and inundating thousands of acres of rich farm lands.

Railroad traffic in southwestern Kansas was at a virtual standstill and many towns were cut off with outside communication with wire and telephone service paralyzed.

Four square miles of Wichita, Kan., were inundated. Municipal officials, organizing emergency relief squads, estimated that the damage in that vicinity alone would total $500,000.

Residents at Pittsburg, Kan., reported they saw a body floating down the Spring river which has overflowed its banks flooding streets and nearby farm lands.

At Dunlap, Kans., a stream of water two feet deep rushed through Main business streets.

Emporia reported that thousands of acres of wheat ready for harvest were covered with water.

The record rainfall which drenched Kansas extended over western Oklahoma and eastern Colorado and many towns in these states were imperiled by flood waters caused by rising streams and rivers.

Estes Park, noted Colorado summer resort, was cut off from surrounding territory when high waters washed out roads and bridges.

Cherry creek, running through Denver, overflowed its banks, flooding storm sewers and suburban streets. Snow in Colorado was at Leadville and surrounding territory.

The Canadian river in western Oklahoma reached its highest stage in years and flood warnings were broadcast by officials. Property loss throughout that section will run high.

STANFORD HALFBACK ACCUSED OF PASSING WORTHLESS BILLS

San Francisco—Raeburn (Ray) Doughty, present star halfback on the football team at Stanford University, was taken into custody by San Francisco police and accused of attempting to pass a $2 federal note, which had been crudely raised to $20. Police say they found nine other $2 notes on his person. These also had been similarly raised. Doughty has been employed recently as physical instructor in a Sacramento high school. He entered Stanford last year from a small college in Texas and made an enviable record as one of the varsity backs during the past season.

Doughty was booked as a federal prisoner.

WETS ARE PLANNING REPEAL MOVEMENTS IN SIX STATES

Washington—"Wet" drives will be started at once in six additional states in an effort to force repeal of state enforcement laws, officials of the association against the prohibition amendment announce.

Rhode Island, Tennessee, California, Pennsylvania, New Jersey and Ohio will be made the immediate objectives of the repeal campaign, which is preliminary to a nation-wide anti-prohibition movement in 1924.

East Bay Politician Sued

Oakland—Suit for $20,000 against Fred Ohe, Emeryville politician, was filed in the superior court here on behalf of the estate of the late Mrs. Jennie L. Conapton, said to have been killed by Ohe's automobile. The plaintiffs in the action are George H. Noble, administrator of the estate, and the son, Beverly Compton, aged 18.

SAYS TAYLOR KILLED BY FIVE HIGHWAYMEN

Seattle Police Get Information That Throws Light on Motive for Slaying Los Angeles Movie Director in February 1922.

Los Angeles.—What is considered by the police as the first real clue which may serve to clear the famous mystery inherent in the murder of William Desmond Taylor, the motion picture director, February 1, last year, consists of a diamond ring and a bond. According to advices received the ring and the bond, property of Taylor, have been traced to Seattle's underworld.

Seattle.—Otis Hefner, Texas stockman, holds the key to the mystery of who killed William Desmond Taylor, the film director, according to information given Sheriff Matt Starwich here.

The slayer was one of a gang of five professional bandits, the sheriff was informed.

Hefner was under arrest here a year ago for theft of an automobile, was given a suspended sentence and went his way.

But before he left he told his story of the Taylor murder to Attorney Crawford White, which was kept under cover until now. In view of the new evidence brought to light, Sheriff Starwich has started the search for the slayer with renewed vigor.

According to the attorney, Hefner said he would disclose the hiding place of a bag containing stolen bonds, currency and a diamond ring, if the lawyer would take it and its contents as his fee, say nothing about it, and "spring" him, Hefner, out of jail. That the ring was the property of the slain director.

Pressing his client for further explanation, White drew from Hefner a statement that Taylor had been slain by a gang of five bandits, of which Hefner was a member, but that one of the others had actually done the killing.

SHRINER CONCLAVE CLOSED IN A BLAZE OF GLORY

Washington.—The Shrine's Imperial council, in its closing business session rejected eight applications for new temples, declaring there was not present need for the proposed new temples. The council, however, awarded a formal charter to Ben Alt Temple, of Sacramento, Cal., which was given a "dispensation" last year.

The greatest carnival that Shrine-dom has ever held in the half century of its merry-making came to a close with the greatest dance ever staged in the United States. It was called "the dance of the states." One hundred thousand people participated, and staid old Pennsylvania avenue, whose history is replete with marches of pomp and power and dignity, furnished the dance floor.

The last day of the Shrine convention, saw another great spectacle—a single band of approximately 6,000 pieces, playing patriotic airs. The 110 bands which accompanied the various delegations amalgamated under the leadership of John Phillip Sousa for a concert. The sound of the music swelled over the capital like a strong wind.

PORTLAND WOMAN ORGANIZE K. K. K. AUXILIARY ORDER

Portland—An organization spanning the entire country and calling to its membership thousands of white Protestant women over eighteen years of age, is the aim of the Women of the Ku Klux Klan, an auxiliary to the Klan, which was granted a charter at Little Rock, Ark., according to a statement made here by Mrs. R. H. Davis, one of the eight women signing the petition. The charter is the outcome of months of work. Final agreement on details was reached at a large gathering of the Ku Klux Klan leaders over the country at Washington, D. C. June 2, Mrs. Davis stated.

Issue Forged Check Warning El Centro—Warnings against forged checks issued on the Imperial Irrigation district which have been widely passed in this district were sent throughout the state. The checks are written on counterfeit of the district's official blanks.

California Boy New Champ New York.—Dave Snade of San Francisco was declared the new welterweight champion of the world, displacing Mickey Walker, by the New York state boxing commission as the result of the failure of Walker to accept a seven-month standing challenge of Snade.

$2,000,000 Policy to Mrs. Field

Chicago.—$2,000,000 life policy, the largest ever issued to a woman in the United States, has been taken out by Mrs. Evelyn Marshall Field.

PUPILS PRESENTED IN MUSIC RECITAL

Mrs. Emily Pannell Gard presented her Campbell pupils in a recital Monday evening, at the Congregational church.

The auditorium was well filled with relatives and friends of the young people and their teacher. Bowls of beautiful pink sweet peas added beauty to the platform where two pianos had been placed for the occasion.

The program numbers were all given without notes except the selections for the two pianos. The work of the younger pupils was somewhat unusual in that respect, being performed without hesitation.

Ruth Matteson, who sang two selections has an exceptionally sweet voice for a girl of that age and her songs were well received.

The last three numbers were given by girls all in the junior year of high school and the character of their work demonstrated the success of Mrs. Gard's system. The "Ventre a Terra" by Kolwaski, was an innovation here, and a feature not often undertaken by a teacher, except with mature performers.

The entire group of pupils and their instructor received many words of compliment and praise.

The program follows:

MASONS HOSTS

Charity Lodge No. 362, F. & A. M. of Campbell were hosts at their annual Ladies' Night Saturday evening.

About seventy-five responded to the invitation and journeyed to the Saratoga Club House where a very pleasant informal time was enjoyed. A short program opened the festivities. The orchestra which later furnished music for the dancing gave an introductory number followed by Mrs. R. H. Hyde, who sang very pleasingly, "The Dove Wings", Woodman, and "Thank God for a Garden", by Teresa Del Riego, Mrs. G. S. Robson accompanying her; H. C. Smith sang "Sunset" by Dudley Buck and "Farther West" by Estella Phillo, with Mrs. Emily P. Gard at the piano, and Mrs. Smith read "Wild Horses". Cards and dancing occupied the remaining hours.

Punch and ice cream and wafers were served, and altogether the men proved themselves to be very capable entertainers.

Mrs. Minnie Lewis is in the San Jose hospital for rest and treatment. Mrs. Lewis was a flu victim during the winter and has never recovered her former vim and vitality. Her host of friends trust that her condition will yield readily to treatment.

SENIORS PLAY STUNTS FOR PUBLIC

Each year the Senior Class of the high school invites the public to witness the Class Night entertainment, when they have their "play time," and Tuesday evening the class of '23 entertained their friends.

Robert Vincent, the president, welcomed the company who had assembled and announced a very informal program. The screen pictures of the class "now and then" was made additionally attractive this time by a reading of "Who's Who?", naming the various activities of each member of the class.

The raising of the curtains disclosed the class upon the stage to sing their Senior Song, to the tune of "Dreamy Hawaii."

The class will was read by Alice Strom and created the usual mirth for those acquainted with the various individuals. An amusing interlude in the usual numbers was a burlesque of the balcony scene from Romeo and Juliet. In turn Bob Vincent, with song, and Grant Taylor, with saxophone, endeavored but vainly to lure fair Juliet from her window, but when Verne Sawyer honked an auto horn, the sweet maid "Oliver Jensen" fairly catapulted to the arms of the wooer.

A piano solo was played by Irma Young, Robert Vincent sang and Grant Taylor played a saxophone solo, Irma accompanying them both. Vivian Gill read the prophecy, written in rhyme, in which she was purported to be sailing about in an aeroplane and saw her former schoolmates engaged in various occupations, she also received part of her message by wireless.

A decidedly funny bit was the take off of a faculty meeting. Seated about the lunch table during the noon hour, the "faculty" discussed members of the class pro and con and their various activities.

Mr. Nodden talked briefly on "The Trials and Tribulations of a Class Advisor," but seemed to have found that the pleasures and compensations outweighing the troubles.

Graham Peake presented the class gift, a beautiful bronze statue of "Triumph", which was received by Anna Lund, president of the Juniors, on behalf of the school.

The last meeting of the season for the Country Woman's Club took the form of a picnic, held Monday in the Los Gatos Memorial Park. Unfortunately only a small part of the members were in attendance, but those who were able to be present enjoyed a restful day in the open. A bounteous picnic dinner was the first pleasant event, succeeded by an hour devoted to "visiting" before the business meeting.

Plans for the dedication of the new Library building were considered and arrangements were left in the hands of the retiring and incoming boards of directors to be prepared jointly.

The clubs working funds—used for the up keep of the library and in helping pay the librarians salaries—being greatly depleted, the members voted to hold food sales on the last Saturdays of June, July and August.

The program scheduled was a "Round Table Discussion of New Novels," Mrs. Augusta Merrill, leader; "Reviews from the Literary Digests' International Book Review of 'Certain People of Importance'," by Kathleen Norris; "One of Ours," Wila Cather; "Anne Severn" and "The Fieldings," May Sinclair. Interesting discussions were held and extracts from some of the books were also read.

A fire alarm called the company to the S. G. Rodeck home Wednesday afternoon to extinguish a chimney fire in the fireplace chimney. No damage was done but the house was quite filled with smoke.

The C. U. H. S. commencement exercises will be held in the new grammar school auditorium to-night, at eight o'clock. The public is invited. Please note the change in place.

People—And they shall be His people, and God Himself shall be with them, and be their God.
Minister—Lord, who shall sojourn in Thy tabernacle?
People—Who shall dwell in Thy holy hill?
Minister—He that walketh uprightly and worketh righteousness.
People—And speaketh truth in his heart.
Minister—Who shall ascend into the hill of the Lord?
People—And who shall stand in the holy place?
Minister—He that hath clean hands and a pure heart.

Minister—Who is this King of Glory?
People—The Lord of Hosts, He is the King of Glory.
Minister—But will God in very deed dwell on the earth? Behold, heaven and the heaven of heavens cannot contain Thee; how much less this house which we have builded.
People—Yet have respect, O Lord, unto the prayer which Thy servants pray before Thee this day, that Thine eyes may be open towards this house night and day.
Minister—Let the beauty of the Lord, our God, be upon us.
People—And establish Thou the work of our hands upon us; yea, the work of our hands, establish Thou it.
Minister and People—This house which we have been permitted to build through the gracious favor of Divine providence, we do now solemnly dedicate to the worship and service of Almighty God, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Ghost. Amen.

A RED LETTER DAY

On Wednesday, June 9, a day
quite perfect in its loveliness, Campbell W. C. T. U. had the pleasure of meeting in the country for its annual "Cherry Feast"
at the invitation of Mrs. F. M.
Righter. After the usual devotional service and Declaration of Principles and roll call of scripture quotations, the business of the day was quickly disposed of.
The program opened with the reading of the prize essays by Rose Criscione and Evelyn Greer, and the prizes presented by the donors, Mrs. Mae Whitman and Mrs. E. G. Kennedy.

Miss Amy Spaulding was then presented and spoke at length upon the subject of Americanization. Miss Spaulding is a graduate of Taylor University, Ind.
and has had post-graduate at Columbia University, N. Y. city and at the Cincinnati University.

A Competent Leader.

One could but listen to the versatile and practical manner in which Miss Spaulding handled her subject, to be brought into sympathy with her theme and become convinced of her fitness as leader of Americanization Institutes among the unions of the U.
S. A.

"Organized Mother Love"

The key-note of the W. C. T. U. is organized mother-love and Miss Spaulding made a plea for the immigrant mother who is generally the last to be reached by American influence, tho it is of vital importance that she, too, gain the high ideals so dear to the heart of all true womanhood.

"Adopt" Foreign-born Mother

The speaker urged each member to informally "adopt" a foreign-born mother and try to be a real helpful sister. Some of these women are quite cultured, sometimes speaking several languages, tho' not versed in the English tongue. Many others are adepts in exquisite handicraft and an entering wedge of friendliness may be a just appreciation of her gifts.

Then, do not fail to notice the baby.

In His Name.

Miss Spaulding made plain that all efforts in this, as well as in every other department, needs be done in the spirit of Christ—
"in order that all homes may be happier and all children, foreign-born as well as native-born, may have a square deal and a fair chance in life." A greatly needed lesson is that "home-brew is injurious in the home as it brings the same results as does the brewery brew."

A rising vote of thanks was given Miss Spaulding for so vividly portraying the fact that one of the essentials in work for perfect Americanization is an international as well as national outlook, since "no one liveth unto himself and the Creator hath made of one blood all the nations of the earth."

Pastor W. E. Eckles gave added emphasis to several points made and said he had not only enjoyed and been interested in the address but liked the spirit in which it was given.

Practical Work Already Begun.

Mrs. W. S. Burr, county superintendent of Americanization, told of a little neighborly center established among the Japanese of San Jose. First lessons being in cleanliness and cookery. The lesson she planned to give next day to be the making of a strawberry short-cake.

County president, Mrs. M. E.
Bellingsworth and Mrs. Maude
Boynton spoke encouragingly.

A Veritable Cherry Feast.

During the social hour the hostess, Mrs. Righter, served a variety of delicious fresh cherries.

The meeting adjourned to meet
June 29, with Mrs. M. J. Wilson, at which time election of officers will be held and a large attendance is requested.

Fifty two trains went through Redding in twenty-four hours after completion of a temporary track around tunnel No. 1, closed by cave-in.

Alexander Thom, rancher of Bakersfield, charged with illicit manufacture of liquor, was released by a jury composed of eleven women and one man.

ranking junior tennis player of the Pacific coast, will play in the national mission, has been chosen at Berkeley

his duties July 1.

PUNDITA CIRCLE HOLDS ANNUAL PICNIC

of the club year was a thoroughly enjoyed picnic at the Mt.

complete and delicious and was served at a long table on the now with gorgeous bougainvillea.

Gaillardias and marigolds were the table flowers.

Everyone contributed in some way toward the success of the picnic and Mrs. C. E. Hanger,

Banking at Home

A MERCHANT of many years' experience, who was interviewed a few days ago on the subject of retail credits, had this to say about bank accounts in general in support of local banking in particular.

"The most important question to ask an applicant for credit," said the merchant,
"is this: Have you a checking account with a bank? There are excellent reasons for requesting that information. In the first place, lack of a checking account generally indicates poor business habits. Again, if the applicant hasn't a bank account he probably has no cash reserve; and unless he has a reserve he's not a good credit risk."

"New customers who have accounts with home banks please me best," the merchant continued, "for reasons that a little thought will make clear to any one.
If the applicant for credit service mentions a local bank, I can verify his statement personally or by phone in a moment's time.
And then when I come to make my deposits of collections, my own banker is better pleased with local checks. Outside checks have to be mailed away, and the local bank is out the interest on the money represented by checks in transit. That, beside the extra trouble. All such service is costly—in the last analysis costs of service have to be paid by local bank patrons, remember that. So banking at home is best for everybody."

Discovery of a New Star

SOME wise person rises to remark that "he who discovers a new food does more for the human race than he who discovers a new star."

Welch's Grapelade, however, is both. It is a new food that is a real star in the firmament of culinary products. Grapes have long had the reputation of being especially healthful, and Concord grapes have a characteristic flavor that is particularly delicious. So there's a double reason for being happy over the discovery of Grapelade, the new spread for bread, hot cakes, muffins or pastry. Tall, 15-ounce jar, 30c.

Swiss Loaf Cheese is also new to many patrons. It is a mild, creamy cheese, without holes. It does not crumble, and can be sliced thin as a wafer. Delightful for luncheon at home, or for sandwiches for school or picnic. The price sounds high, but the richness and satisfying qualities of this cheese make it economical. The pound, 60c.

better lubrication at half the price

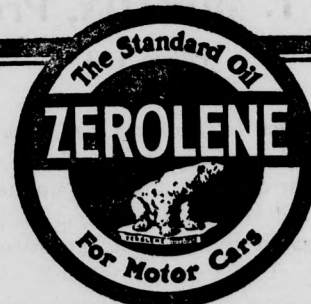

If you could get better lubrication with high-priced oils in return for the fancy price you pay, well enough—but the superiority of Zerolene in each of the following tests has been demonstrated repeatedly:

1. Zerolene follows closely the changing clearances of the moving engine parts; it maintains perfect piston seal always.
2. Zerolene absorbs less gasoline than other oils; it resists dilution and emulsification in the crankcase.
3. Zerolene forms less carbon; it cuts carbon removal operations from 25% to 50%.

The reason is this: Zerolene is produced from selected Western Naphthenic-Base Crude, and vacuum-distilled by the exclusive high-vacuum process developed by this Company.

Insist on Zerolene—even if it does cost less.

ANNOUNCEMENT OF INTEREST TO Millions of Families

"I will build a car for the multitude,"

Said Henry Ford in 1903—Read how the fulfillment of that prophecy is now made possible through the

FORD WEEKLY PAYMENT PLAN

For many years it has been Henry Ford's personal ambition to make the Ford the universal family car—to put it within the reach of the millions of people who have never been privileged to enjoy the benefits of motor car ownership.

And now the way is open.

Under the terms of this plan you can select your Ford car, set aside a small amount each week, and you will be surprised how soon you will own it. In the meantime your money will be safely deposited to your credit in one of the local banks where it will draw interest.

Think it over. Five dollars will start an account. The whole family can participate in it—father, mother, brothers and sisters each doing a little.

Why not start today. Stop in and talk it over with your local Ford dealer. He would be glad to fully explain the details of the plan and help you get started toward the ownership of a Ford car.
